Report of the Council

The President and Council have the honour of presenting to the members the Annual Report of the fifty-eighth year of the Institute.

MEMBERS.—The number of members on the roll at the beginning of the year was 462. Twenty-six new members were elected, and the same number of names removed, 11 by death, and 15 by resignation.

OBITUARY.—The Institute has been unfortunate in losing several prominent members by death during the year. The Rt. Hon. Mr. W. F. Massey, P.C., Prime Minister, whose death in June was mourned throughout the Dominion, was for many years a member and strong supporter of the Institute and Museum. The Council has placed on record its appreciation of the late Mr. Massey's many and notable services to the Dominion and the Empire, and has expressed its grateful recognition of his great and practical interest in the work of the Institute and Museum, which are deeply indebted to his generosity and support.

By the death of Mr. Petrie the Institute has lost one of its most distinguished scientists. Mr. Petrie's botanical researches covered the whole period of his residence in New Zealand, and have resulted in the addition of most extensive and valuable contributions to the knowledge of our native flora. The Council has placed on record its appreciation of his services in the following resolution:—

"That the Council records its sincere regret at the loss which has been sustained by the Institute and by botanical science through the death of Dr. Donald Petrie, M.A., F.N.Z.Inst., Past-President of the Institute and for many years a member of the Council."

"It records its high appreciation of his distinguished botanical researches, and of his valuable service to the cause of national education, particularly in the Auckland District. The Council further desires to express its deep sympathy with Mrs. Petrie and her family in their sad loss."

It is with regret that the Council also records the death of Sir T. Cooper, the Hon. Mr. W. McCulloch, and Messrs. G. A.

AIM Ann Report 1925 to 1926

Buttle, G. R. Bloomfield, John Denin, R. T. Fenwick, W. J. Napier, E. Withy and A. Wyllie.

COUNCIL.—A Special Meeting of the Institute was held during the year, at which a very desirable amendment to the rules was made, whereby the Chairman of the Trust Board becomes ex-officio a member of the Council.

THE PRESIDENT.—It is with regret that the Council has to announce that it has received an intimation from Sir James Gunson that he will be unable to continue in the office of President of the Institute and Museum for a further period, and their regret at this decision will be shared by all the members.

Sir James was elected President in 1916, and the ten years of his leadership have been a notable period in the history of the Institute and Museum, a period during which the Museum has advanced from a position of poor resources and limited prospects to an assurance of widened activities in the spacious War Memorial Museum building, the erection of which is so well advanced.

In every step taken towards this end, in the securing of the site in the Auckland Domain, in the consideration of the details of the plans and specifications of the building, in the organisation of the appeal for the large sum required, and its energetic and successful prosecution, and in the conclusion of suitable arrangements for the adequate future maintenance of the enlarged Museum, through the co-operation of the City Council, Sir James Gunson has performed distinguished services with tireless enthusiasm, and the Council desires to place on record its keen appreciation of his unfailing effort and of the notable result thereby achieved.

FINANCE.—The receipts during the year, excluding the credit balance from last year, were £2,059 18s 2d of which Members' Subscriptions brought in £404 8s, and Special Subscriptions, for the purchase of specimens, amounted to £155 8s 11d. On the expenditure side, £865 2s 4d was paid for specimens, being chiefly from the "Edge-Partington" Fund, subscribed by citizens last year, and from £100 16s 11d additional subscriptions to that fund given last month. An unexpected item was £185 1s 3d, the cost of dismantling, removing and storing the large Maori Meeting house "Hotunui," handed over by the Ngati-Maru people of Thames. The library expenditure, £31 14s 2d, is low because of the non-presentation of accounts amounting to £146 8s 1d, which will be paid during the present month, thus reducing the apparent balance at the end of the year of £285 4s 3d to £138 16s 2d. The invested funds show an increase of £189 13s 5d, of which £150 4s 6d, is from the Princes Street Property Sale Account, the remainder being from the sales of endowment lands and Life Members' Subscriptions.

MEETINGS.—The syllabus for the year was similar to that of last year. Six public lectures were delivered and were extremely well attended. To the public appreciation, indicated by the large attendances, the Council desires to add its thanks to the lecturers for their kind co-operation and help. The following lectures were delivered:—

"The Historic Canoes," Dr. Buck.

"A Glimpse of the City of New York," Professor Knight.

"New Zealand Pronunciation," Mr. J. W. Shaw.

"Ancient Religious Beliefs of the Maori," Ven. Archdeacon Williams.

"Medicine in Mediaeval Times," Mr Kenneth MacKenzie.

"The University Question," Professor Paterson.

The ordinary meetings were equally successful, particularly the joint meeting of the Institute with the Anthropology and the Astronomical Sections, when papers were read by Dr. Buck and Professor Burbidge on "Astronomical Knowledge of the Maori."

The visit to Auckland of Sir Ernest Rutherford was marked by the holding of a conversazione in his honour on 30th September, in conjunction with the University College, the Medical Association, and the Institute of Civil Engineers.

At the ordinary meetings there were read sixteen papers in subjects as follows: Physics and Astronomy, 3; Chemistry, 3; Geology, 4; Botany, 1; Zoology, 4; Anthropology, 1; to which must be added the papers presented to the Anthropology Section.

The papers that have been read indicate that research is being actively conducted by the members, and the approval by the New Zealand Institute of the following research grants, from the sum allocated for this purpose by the Government, will, it is hoped, considerably assist this progress:—

Mosquito Control Committee (Professor Thomas, Chairman; Mr. Armitage, Hon. Secretary).

Waitemata Harbour Survey (Mr. Falla, Hon. Secretary).

Mollusca of Auckland, Mr. Powell.

Constituents of Essential Oils of New Zealand Plants, Mr. Short.

Essential Oils of New Zealand Plants, Professor Worley.

AIM Ann Report 1925 to 1926

ANTHROPOLOGY AND MAORI RACE SECTION.—That interest in the studies of this section is growing, is indicated by the increase in membership, from 32 to 42 during the year.

The officers for 1925 were: Chairman, Dr. Buck. Committee: Professor Sperrin-Johnson, Dr. McIlraith, and Messrs. Archey, Geddes and Geo. Graham. Hon. Secretary and Treasurer: Mr. V. F. Fisher. Hon Auditor: Mr. Ivo Esam.

Seven meetings, all being open to the public, were held in the Biology Lecture Theatre of the University College, and attendances of up to 200 recorded.

The Syllabus was as follows:—

"Ballads and the Folk Mind," Professor Sperrin-Johnson.

"Celtica and the Celts," Mr. T. Walsh.

"Excavations at Murdering Beach," Mr. H. D. Skinner.

"Palaeolithic Man," Mr. Gilbert Archey.

"The Relation of Animal Life to Maori Social Economy," Mr. R. A. Falla.

"Evolution of Maori Two-handed Clubs," Dr. P. H. Buck.

"The Maori Carver," Mr. Raymond Firth.

With the completion of the new museum building, in which the splendid collection of Maori and other ethnographical exhibits will be displayed to advantage, it is hoped that the section will meet with continued success in its activities in this important branch of science.

LIBRARY.—The expenditure incurred on behalf of the library was £178 2s 3d; £17 14s 5d on binding; £49 13s on books and £110 14s 10d on periodicals. Included in the latter is the purchase from our Otago colleagues at a generously low offer of a set of the Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute, the acceptance of which was made possible through special subscriptions from Mr. Kenderdine, Dr. Buck, Professor Thomas, and Messrs. Graham, Archey, and Hudson.

The smaller amount for library expenditure than indicated above, which appears in the balance sheet, is due to the non-presentation of statements from our agents.

Co-operation with other scientific libraries in the city has been effected by the transfer to the University library of our series of Annalen der Physik and Zeitschrift fur Physikalische-Chemie, while transfers to our library of certain sets have been made by the University and the Public Libraries.

MUSEUM.—Sunday and holiday attendances during the year were 20,539, which is slightly less than last year, and is accounted for by the closing of the Museum to children by the Health Department regulations, operating during the infantile paralysis epidemic last summer. The week-day attendance has been very good, particularly that of parties of children from the city and country schools.

Extensive cataloguing has been done by the Museum staff. Mr. Griffin, Assistant Curator, has completed a double card-index of the bird collection, while a similar catalogue of the ethnological collection has been compiled from the register by the assistant, Mr. Cleland. In addition, all the extensive additions to the ethnological collection received during the year have been registered and card-catalogued, and this department can, in this respect, be said to be on a sound basis.

The Geology room was closed in July, and the collections packed for removal to the new building. This has made space available for unpacking the boxes of ethnological material, hitherto uncatalogued, the classification and indexing of which is now in progress.

MUSEUM SITE.—After a conference between the Council and the Trust Board, it was decided to offer the present museum site and buildings for sale by public auction. The sale took place on 31st July, when the satisfactory price of £32,000 was obtained, which sum, payable when possession of the premises is given, will be devoted, wholly or in part, to the provision of cases and fittings for the new building.

ADDITIONS TO THE COLLECTIONS.—The Edge-Partington Collection, presented by Mrs. Selwyn Upton and Mr. W. Cecil Leys, arrived in April, and has been kindly held in storage by the Harbour Board, while the Turner Collection, which was delivered to the Curator, who visited Suva for the purpose, by Mrs. Turner and the late Mr. Turner's executors, is now in the Museum. The Council is in communication with Mrs. Turner, as to the classifying and cataloguing of the collection prior to its display in the new museum. The Register, an extract from which is printed in the appendix, shows that 207 accessions to the Museum were received, nearly all of which were gifts.

An important event in this connection was the handing over by Mr. Eruini Taipiri, and his brother chiefs of the Ngati-Maru tribe, of their very large and important meeting house "Hotunui," erected at Parawai. This decision was made at a special meeting of the tribe, held at Parawai in March, Judge C. E. MacCormick presiding. The house was removed to Auckland, and is being stored by the Harbour Board, pending its erection in the new building, which has been specially modified for its reception.

The Ngati-Maru people have, by this wise action, not only ensured the preservation of their splendid house, but have also set a public-spirited example, which it is hoped will be followed by others. The Council desires to express its thanks to Judge MacCormick and to Mr George Graham, for their help and advice to both the owners and the Council in the discussions which led to the transfer of the house to the Museum.

Among the gifts received, the Council desires to direct attention to the large collection of rare greenstone and other ornaments and tools; including a beautiful tangiwai pendant, nearly 15 inches long, and also a fine series of articles from the Solomon Islands, generously presented by Mr. F. Crossley Mappin.

Mr. H. E. Vaile has, during the year, added many articles, some of exceptional importance, to what should now be known as the Vaile Collection: they include an elaborately carved double stone figure, probably a taumata ("Kumara god"), dug up at Northcote, a greenstone Koropepe, or spiral fishing charm, previously unrepresented in our collection, a greenstone hei matau, and the very large greenstone adze to be mentioned below.

Mr George Graham similarly has continued to augment the Graham Collection, and among his many gifts this year are to be noted one of the red feather money-belts from Santa Cruz, and a very fine "lotus"-club from Fiji.

Considerable collections of Maori articles have been presented by Miss Eleanor Brown, Mr. Norman Lethbridge, Dr. Buck, Mr. Hallyburton Johnstone and Dr. Marsack. The Hon. Mr. Fowlds, C.B.E., has given an extensive collection from Melanesia and South Africa, the Rev. Angus Macdonald, O.B.E., C.F., and Mr. W. H. Gummer, have both made noted additions to the Egyptian collection, Mr. A. J. Vogan, F.R.G.S., has presented the bones of an important fossil turtle from Lord Howe Island, and Mr. Oscar Raphael of London has presented a pair of glazed pottery ridge tiles of the Ming period, each a handsome equestrian statuette.

Two important deposit collections have also been received, the first being that of a large series of cloaks, weapons, and ornaments from Mrs. J. Brown of Remuera, and the second, the well-known collection made by the late Mr. Andrew Rintoul, comprising ornaments and weapons of stone, bone, and greenstone. This has been deposited by Mrs. Rintoul, and her son, Mr. Alexander Rintoul. Both of these deposited collections contain one of the very large adzes now to be mentioned.

Last year the Museum acquired from the Waikato district, an enormous greenstone adze, 27 inches long and weighing 16lbs. and early in the present year a similarly shaped greenstone adze, 17 inches long, was secured from Petane. In Mrs. Brown's collection there is a heavy adze (8 lbs.), 17½ inches long, once the property of Wiremu Kingi, while Mrs. Rintoul's adze is 6½ lbs. weight, and 18 inches long; both are of fine greenstone and splendid finish. Mr. Vaile's adze, mentioned above, is also greenstone, 22 inches long, and remarkably slender, but of the same shape as Mrs. Rintoul's, and the Waikato and Petane adzes. The shape of these monster adzes seems to be peculiar to them, and the Museum is particularly fortunate to be able to display this unique series.

There remain to be recorded the acquisitions that have been made from the fund originally subscribed by the citizens towards the purchase of the Edge-Partington collection, and which were generously left at our disposal by the subscribers, when it was announced that the collection had been given as a memorial to the late Dr. Leys.

Purchase was made of three large and well-known private collections of Maori articles, an extensive series from New Guinea and Southern Melanesia, and a collection made many years ago in the Tanganyika district, South Africa; a credit of £50 was established with an honorary agent in London, and several individual items, including one of the large adzes, were purchased. The balance was augmented recently by subscriptions, totalling £100 16s 11d, from members, all of whom were subscribers to the original fund, and used for the purchase of another extensive and important private collection. The subscribers were, Mr. H. E. Vaile, Mr. E. E. Vaile, Mrs. R. Wilson, Sir Henry Brett, Mr. Ernest Davis, Sir Edwin Mitchelson, Mr. J. Kenderdine, Mr. J. H. Upton and Mr. Arthur Eady.

By means of this generous support from the citizens no less than 203 Maori articles, and 351 Melanesian, Polynesian and South African ethnological exhibits have been added to the collection. These, and the many individual gifts previously mentioned, are handsome contributions towards making the display in the new Museum worthy of the splendid building which is to contain them.

WAR MEMORIAL MUSEUM.—The Hansford and Mills Construction Company, contractors for the building, have made substantial progress with its erection, having nearly completed the construction of the ground floor storey.

On August 1st, in the presence of a large gathering of invited guests and of the public, the ceremony of laying the foundation stone was performed by the Hon. Mr. J. Gordon Coates, M.C., Prime Minister. Sir James Gunson, as Chairman of the Auckland Citizens' War Memorial Committee and President of the Institute and Museum, presided over the gathering. Speeches were delivered by the Chairman, the Prime Minister, the Deputy Mayor (Mr. Jas. A. Warnock), and the late Major-General C. W. Melvill, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O. Prior to the laying of the foundation stone by the Prime Minister, a prayer was offered by his Grace the Archbishop of New Zealand (the Most Rev. Dr. Averill), a copy of the prayer being then placed within the stone, together with other appropriate documents and records.

At the present rate of progress it may reasonably be anticipated that the building will be completed within the contract time, and possession given to the Council by the Citizens' Committee early in 1928, when the transfer of all the Institute and Museum interests to the spacious new building, will be effected.

CONCLUSION.—Finally attention is again drawn to the progress that both the Institute and Museum have made during the year, the former through interesting public lectures and the prosecution of research, the latter by the very large and valuable acquisitions, and the forward state of the preparations for the transfer to the new building; and it is hoped that this progress and advancement may be maintained and increased during the coming year by the active interest and support of the members and of the citizens generally.
